Megaxus Launches New Game: Amazing Swing

Megaxus in November this year launched its newest game, Amazing Swing. This is a casual game genre that has been produced by the Megaxus game development team.

This game looks simple but energetic. How not so, players here are invited to jump over high fortresses to get the most coins, with these coins players can change their avatars with themes such as circus clowns, and legendary animation themes.

What's interesting is that by playing Amazing Swing, players can also get free vouchers by collecting points to be exchanged for various prizes such as MI-Cash vouchers, Google, MAP, and others. Collect as many points as possible, the more points you collect, the more prizes you can get.
